

Crystalline Dreamer

We dream at every dreaming landscape simultaneously, yet we remember dreams in our own unique way.

The dreaming landscapes –where we go in dreams– are based on time: the Dreaming Landscapes of What Is, the Dreaming Landscapes of What Was, the Dreaming Landscapes of What Could Be, and the Dreaming Landscapes of What is Eternal, but it is only one aspect that helps us build a dreaming profile; what we do in the dreaming landscapes, how open the gate to these landscapes is and how we access them are the other three main factors.

Profile

The Crystalline Dreamer visits the Dreaming Landscapes of What Could Be, the birthing place of every potential –what has not been recognized or expressed in our present physical reality.

Time Rivers and Crystalline Waterfalls are both territories of the Dreaming Landscapes of What Could Be, but they are very different.

Landscapes

In the Time Rivers, we travel in time to what can be or what could have been, collectively or personally. As quantum physicists know, merely by observing potentials, they transform; it means that one conscious human dreaming in this landscape favorably impacts us all.

Prophetic dreams –potentials that do come to pass– exist in this landscape; a clear human recognizes in dreams that given the choices that have already been made, specific outcomes are inevitable. But most dreams are not inevitable, they are only potentials.

In the Crystalline Waterfalls, we encounter healing, new and original ideas that open the door to inventions, music that has not sounded on Earth, mathematical formulas that solve critical problems, or images that clarify entire paradigms. The recognition of these findings hits us the moment we wake up.

These dreams may powerfully transform our Earthly lives, but most bring back no information; the profound knowingness unfolds gradually in our human reality. Inventors, pioneers, creators, and creatives come to this landscape regularly.

Interestingly, this is the door to dreams that some choose to open first because it is where we distill information and wake up not with stories but with answers.

As the Ascended Master Tobias says in Dreams, Some of the most complex, multidimensional, and the purest energy dreams will bring back no memories at all.

Tips

One way to identify if you are a Crystalline Dreamer is to note if you have had any dreams about animals that do not exist on this planet or with mythical creatures like unicorns or dragons. Another way is to recognize that the feeling is beautiful, even when exploring sensations that the mind deems unpleasant.

Note that intense and volatile emotions come from the mind, and we experience them in less refined dreaming landscapes, whereas subtle and stable feelings come from the Soul, and we find them here.

An awake Crystalline Dreamer is a dreamwalker –a dreamer entering the dreaming landscapes from the waking state. This dreamer moves freely within the Limbo, Dark Jungles, Utopic Highlands, and Time Rivers, and we contend that it is the only dreamer allowed into the Consciousness Islands. See The The Dreaming Landscapes.

Safely connect with the Crystalline Waterfalls with two audios from the Crimson Circle: I Am Potentials from Master Kuthumi, recorded in 2022, and the 2013 DreamWalk Journey to your Secret Garden from Adamus Saint-Germain. No, we don't get commissions on it, but if it helps, let us know.
